Castro, Chile

Castro is a commune in Chile of the province of Chiloé, in the Chiloé Archipelago. Castro is the third oldest city in Chile. The Spanish conquerors took possession of the archipelago in 1567. The City Park is located at the top of the city, it is held every summer the Festival Costumbrista Chilote, the largest of its kind in southern Chile. In this park there are areas to eat, where neighborhood units placed stalls typical food and local craft shows. In addition, the exhibition is held in the Biodiversity Fair, offering samples of agricultural products, for example, the different varieties of potatoes grown existing in the archipelago. The small park was planted Train Plazueta field of the old station which was destroyed in the 1960 earthquake. An old locomotive and other objects relating to the history of the railway line established in 1912 between Castro and Ancud are exposed therein the village of Nercón, 5 km south of Castro, and incorporated into urban radio since 2007, is the Church of Our Lady of Grace Nercón, built in 1886-90 with a small garden in front of the building. The church is 37.3 meters long and 15.30 long. It was declared a National Monument on July 27, 1984 and a World Heritage Site in December 2000. Among Nercón and Castro can visit boat-building yards Wood River Bridge near Nercón is an animita well known in the province. In Millantuy Hill is a monument to the Virgin Mary, offering a view of downtown and the Castro fjord.
