The Ruins of Herculaneum

😊 Recommended because:

- ✓ It's a small town that was a resort destination in ancient times, and can be visited in less than two hours.
- ✓ There are multi-story houses, wooden furnishing and decorations, and perfectly preserved mosaic and sculptures to admire.

😞 Not recommended if:

- ✓ You only have time to visit either Pompeii or Herculaneum; we do not recommend attempting both in one day.
- ✓ You want to explore it all, as many of the houses and buildings are not open to the public.

The Ruins of Pompeii

😊 Recommended because:

- ✓ It's a unique example of a perfectly preserved Roman city with temples, theaters, homes, restaurants, and public buildings.
- ✓ More sites open to the public and a greater variety of architectures to visit.
- ✓ You can experience first-hand the majesty of a Roman forum, theater, and amphitheater.

😞 Not recommended if:

- ✓ You only have an hour or two, as it takes a significant amount of time and energy to visit.
- ✓ It's a particularly hot day, as there is little shade.
