Malaga, Spain

- Malaga is the capital of the Malaga province.
- 5th most populated city in Spain.

Cruise Terminal

- The Eastern dock (Pier 1) is used by the cruise ships.
 - The walk to the city center around Plaza de la Constitucion and Calle Puerta de Mar is ~1.5 miles.
- If you want to go to a beach, walk to the lighthouse about 700' from dock.
- Hand luggage is checked by the port authorities before entering the terminal. However, no bags are checked when boarding ship.
- There is a duty free store in the terminal with alcoholic beverages.

Shopping

- Shops are usually open Mon-Sat from 9:30am-1:30pm and 4:30pm-8:00pm.
- Big shopping centers are open 10:00am-9:00pm.
- Good shopping in the Historical Quarter, which is the city's largest commercial area. Many monumental and museum attractions are here too. The whole area is a semi-circle that extends out from its central axis at Calle Larios to the banks of the River Guadalmedina and to Calles Carretera, Alamos, and Alcazabilla.

Attractions (1)

- Alhambra – UNESCO World Heritage Site in Granada (~2 hrs from Malaga). It is a palace and fortress complex, originally constructed as a small fortress in 889CE on the remains of ancient Roman fortifications. Rebuilt in the mid-13th century by the Arab Nasrid emir Mohammed ben Al-Ahmar of the Emirate of Granada. Converted into a royal palace in 1333 by Yusur I, Sultan of Granada. The site became the Royal Court of Ferdinand and Isabella in 1492.
 - Not accessible to wheelchairs or walkers.
 - Must bring your passport for entry.
 - There are several types of tickets. Must make a reservation. 14E (9E for 65+) for a timed entry ticket for Nasrid Palaces (the highlight). Includes Alcazaba, the Generalife Palace and Gardens. There may be delays in entry and tickets are limited.
 - Plan at least 2 hours to see most of the Alhambra.
 - <https://www.alhambradegranada.org/en/info/ticketsale.asp>
 - Take a taxi to the central bus station (~4E). Busses are faster than trains.
 - Buy a round-trip bus ticket to Granada. Direct (1:30hrs) or 1 stop Bus (1:45 hrs) is best. <https://www.alsa.com/en/web/bus/home>
 - Supra busses are very comfortable and include water, snack, free WiFi, and a reserved seat. ~24-27E.
 - Bus station in Granada is ~3km from the center of town. Taxi to city center is ~7E and ~11E to Alhambra (plenty of taxis available). From the city center it is a 25 min uphill walk.

Attractions (3)

- Alcazaba - fortress palace with lovely gardens. Houses the local archaeological museum and a tiered Roman theater. Arabic name means citadel. Built between 1057 and 1063 by Badis, King of the Berber Taifa of Granada.
- Nuestra Senora de la Encarnacion (Our Lady of Incarnation) – impressive high Renaissance cathedral sits next to an unfinished Gothic church. One of the best examples of Spanish religious art. Foundation laid ~1530 and work ended in the 17th century. It is unfinished and lacks coping on the main façade and the south court.
- Gibralfaro Castle - Ancient Moorish fortress, high above the Alcazaba. There is a path all the way up but the climb is severe. There is an elevator to the palace which is half-way up. Inside there is an interesting military museum and spectacular views of the city.

Attractions (4)

- Caminito Del Rey (King's Little Path) – cliff-side path hanging 100m above the river Guadalhorce reservoir, El Chorro Gorge; ~25k from Malaga; reconstructed in 2015 to follow old 1921 path which was originally workmen's access to aqueduct; ~2 miles; 2 hr walk; lots of stairs

Attractions (5)

- Count Buenavista Palace and Picasso Museum – short walk from the Cathedral on Calle San Augustin. 16th century Renaissance building is home of the Museo Picasso Malaga. Museo Picasso includes some of the most valuable collections of the artist.
- Carmen Thyssen Museum – collection covers Romanticism and Costumbrism from the 19th century.
- Glass and Crystal Museum – located in a carefully restored townhouse, it is a treasure chest of interesting glass artefacts.
- The Contemporary Art Centre – based in a former market with modern art exhibitions
