IMPORTANT NOTIFICATION

Please be advised of a recent update to your cruise itinerary, making Shanghai the initial port of call to mainland China. This adjustment is intended to simplify visa requirements for our guests. Consequently, guests who arrive and depart with the ship in mainland China may now be eligible for a visa waiver under the following exemption.

Guests entering mainland China via Shanghai must book a tour with Holland America Line or an approved tour agency to receive the visa exemption for their tour. Guests must verify themselves that an independent tour is approved to provide a visa exemption. The exemption extends to other port calls in mainland China on authorized tours only, as independent exploration is not allowed.

Guests who plan to go ashore independently must obtain a Chinese visa. Guests who neither secure a Chinese visa nor qualify for a visa waiver/exemption will regrettably not be permitted to go ashore in China and must remain on board.
