Going Ashore

When going ashore, please remember to carry your stateroom keycard and a government issued photo ID.

New Zealand Biosecurity Notice

New Zealand enforces strict biosecurity regulations that prohibit the removal of certain food items from the vessel. Items such as fresh fruit and vegetables, all types of meat, prepared meals (including sandwiches), dairy products, eggs, and honey, as well as flowers, seeds, and plants, must not be taken ashore.

Guests going ashore may also be requested to present their hand luggage, including backpacks, for inspection if required by biosecurity authorities.

Relocation of Ship's Berth in Auckland

Please be advised that during our overnight stay in Auckland, the ship will be relocating to a different pier. Upon arrival, Volendam will be docked at Queen's Wharf East. At 4:30am on March 3, we will relocate to Princes Wharf, where we will remain until departure on March 3.

To facilitate this relocation, the gangways will close at 4:00am on March 3. We expect to reopen the gangway at approximately 6:00am once we are secured alongside at Princes Wharf. Please plan to return to the ship before 4:00am or after 6:00am.
